RE: In The Best Interests of James Griffin
Case No. DR 98 504

Dear Sirs:

This letter is to document my position on overdue and delinquent fees for services rendered to Mr. Leonard Griffin and Mrs. Francis Gale, and as verbally guaranteed by Mrs. Paula Cappadona. This is also in response to the most recent phone conference with Tyler Makepeace Esquire.

The current and outstanding balance on this bill is $6,656.50. As of the above date, this bill is exceedingly overdue. As stated on information which was signed by all of the above parties, "Your bill will be considered delinquent if not paid within 30 days and will be subject to collections". No further work can be done on this case until this bill is paid in full. This is to include any decisions or recommendations concerning three day or four day weekends, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Years and other holidays pertaining to James Griffin.

Also, I know thus far that the above parties have not made any type of arrangements for payment. As indicated above payment plans are not accepted. As stated in earlier correspondence, this bill is due for collections. If arrangements are not made for this bill to be paid in full within a reasonable amount of time, this special advocate has no other recourse than to submit this to his collections attorney, Kenneth Davidson, Esquire. At that time, reasonable attorney fees will be added to the bill and an interest rate of 18% per annum will be applied as described in the general practice information, which was signed by Mr. Griffin, Mr. Gale and Mrs. Cappadona. The most recent bill includes the writing and mailing the Special Advocate's Report to both attorneys and the Court.

Most Sincerely,

Mark H. Hoffman, Ed.D.

/jj
